3. Talked with Miss Furlani in the office of Representative Harley O. Staggers concerning a constituent's letter forwarded to the Agency. It was agreed that the Agency would only acknowledge receipt of the letter to close the Congressman's files.

4. Talked with Mr. William Darden, Senate Armed Services Committee, concerning the proposed Agency briefing for the CIA Subcommittee of Senate Armed Services. Mr. Darden believed that this is a highly desirable proposal and suggested we be in contact with Senator Russell. (See memorandum for the record dated 11 December 1958.)

5. Talked with Mr. Kenneth Sprinkle of House Appropriations Committee alerting him to the desire of the Agency to furnish the CIA Appropriations Subcommittee a substantive briefing on CIA activities. Mr. Sprinkle thought this was most appropriate but stated he would mention it to the Chairman. (See memorandum for the record dated 11 December 1958.)
